

Feb 25-27 Itinerary

AMG Golf Schools

Day 1

On Friday, February 25th, you'll arrive in Orlando Florida. You can drive if you're close, and come directly to the Fairfield Inn at Flamingo Crossings, or you can fly into the nearby Orlando airport.

Once you touch down, go grab your luggage and head outside. You'll have an Uber voucher on your phone that you'll use to take you to the hotel for a seamless trip.

You'll arrive at the front doors of the Fairfield Inn at Flamingo Crossings, where your room will be prepared and waiting on you (check in is at 4pm). Enjoy the amenities, grab a bite to eat, or rest up, because at 4:45 pm, you'll meet Mike, me, and the 3 other players we'll be working with down in the main lobby.

We'll head over to the brand new AMG House nearby, where you'll get suited up in GEARS. We'll do your complete swing analysis and deliver some immediate feedback, focus points, and discover more about you, your swing, and your goals!

This will allow us to tailor the next 2 full days to your swing, needs, and the proper adjustments you'll need to make so you leave with a much better swing than you showed up with.

While each player gets captured on GEARS, the rest of the group will hang out together, and watch (a great time to start learning) while enjoying some snacks and beverages.

We chose to have an intimate group of just 4 players, so we can dive deep into your game, getting to know you, your strengths, your areas of concerns, goals, and more...

Because over the next 2 days, we'll work together to build your swing, developing the game you've always known you were capable of!

Once all the swings have been captured and analysed, we'll head out and do what we're really good at... EATING.

After a fun dinner, we'll get you back to your hotel for some rest. Because on Day 2, we get after it!

Day 2

At 8:30 am Saturday morning, we'll meet in the lobby for Day 2.

We have a full day of instruction ahead of us, and we don't want to waste a minute of our time together, so we hop directly into full swing instruction.

We'll work together on your swing for the next 90 minutes as you enjoy 2 players to 1 coach personalised attention as we work to accomplish clear adjustments and goals we've focused on after watching your GEARS analysis.

At 10:30 am we'll switch gears and focus on your ever-important short game. We'll cover all aspects of your short game, focusing on your putting, pitching, distance wedges, shot selection, and more! You'll gain so much confidence in your short game as you discover the tricks of the trade and tour adjustments.

At Noon, We'll have a well-deserved break at noon for lunch. We'll get a chance to relax, talk about your game, and answer any questions you may have from the morning session.

At 1pm, we'll hit the course for strategy and on-course instruction. We've found this instruction is so incredibly valuable, as you'll get "live" in the moment advice, critiques, and feedback across a variety of shots throughout your round.

We'll not only deliver solutions and tweaks to your swing, but we'll also talk course strategy, course management, club selection, and more! For the next four hours, you'll get on the course instruction, tips, tricks, and can ask any questions about your swing, game, and course management.

Around 5:00 to 5:30pm, we'll head back to the hotel where you can grab dinner, hit the bar, or just relax. Rest up because we have another full day of golf instruction ahead!

Day 3

Day 3 will have the same timeline as Day 2, except Mike and I will have collective valuable information about your swing and overall game. During Day 2, we'll adapt your training and instruction based on the adjustments and improvements you've already made over the last 48 hours.

We'll start the day with Full Swing Instruction and then turn our attention to full short game instruction in the morning. Enjoy another wonderful lunch together. Then enjoy a full afternoon of on-course instruction where we'll continue to adapt the training, instruction, and strategy we've taught you into your game.

Before we part ways, we'll make sure you've gotten everything you were expecting and then some. We'll answer final questions and make sure you're leaving with a crystal clear understanding of the areas of your swing that you need to fix, and a complete strategy of drills and techniques to continue to improve as a player.

Though this will be "goodbye" for now, we will have created a bond and a friendship we hope will last many years to come. We will be thankful for the opportunity to work with you!

This entire experience is covered in one simple price. We don't want you to worry about anything but your game. Your relaxing hotel accommodations, and lunch every day (and dinner Day 1), and shuttles to and from the airport are on our dime.

You just make it to Orlando, clubs in hand, and we'll take care of the rest!
